

The 1st China-Latin America Local Government Cooperation Forum

The 1st China-Latin America and the Caribbean Local Government Cooperation Forum in Shandong Province in 2016. At the appointed time we will invite the local governmental representatives from different pairs of friendly cities, or friendly provinces and states between China and Latin America and the Caribbean to participate in this forum and to share developmental and managerial experience for the mutual development.